

Quarterly List of WGBX-TV Programming Providing the Most Significant Treatment of Community Issues - WGBX-TV (January-March 2013)

I. Education/Schools/Youth

To The Contrary with Bonnie Erbe, N 02/10/13, 7:30am, 30 min.

As Hillary Clinton leaves behind her work at the State Department she sits down with host, Bonnie Erbe, to share her dedication and commitment to women and girls' empowerment. From First Lady to the U.S. Senate to the State Department, Clinton guides us through her storied career with one common thread: issues facing women and girls.

Religion & Ethics Newsweekly, N 01/16/13, 7am, 30 min.

Catholic Schools - Because of rising costs and changing demographics, many Catholics schools have been forced to close, leading one Catholic leader to say "our educational system was imploding" and that "radical surgery had to be done." Now, as Bob Faw reports, the Archdiocese of Philadelphia has turned to a private foundation to manage 21 of its schools, promoting their programs and raising funds.

Frontline, N 01/03/13, 9pm, 60 min.

"Poor Kids" FRONTLINE spent months following three young girls who are growing up against the backdrop of their families' struggles against financial ruin. The result is an intimate portrait of the economic crisis as it's rarely seen, through the eyes of children. At a time when one in five American kids lives below the poverty line, Poor Kids is an unflinching and revealing exploration of what poverty means to children, and to the country's future.

II. Housing/Urban Development

Need To Know, N 01/27/13, 9am, 30 min.

On the first of two inauguration specials examining the advocacy group "Common Good's" proposals to end bureaucratic gridlock and get the United States moving forward, Need to Know anchor Jeff Greenfield explores why it now takes nearly four times as long to complete infrastructure projects in the United States than it did in the 1970's. By comparison, correspondent Rick Karr reports on how German political parties of every stripe are now backing a multi-billion-dollar plan that is expected to end German use of fossil fuels by 2050.

PBS Newshour, N 03/23/13, 11pm, 60 min.

New reports show a spike in U.S. home prices, rising at the fastest pace since 2006. To learn what's driving this recovery, Hari Sreenivasan talks with Nicholas Retsinas of the Harvard Business School.

III. Public Safety/Crime/Justice

To The Contrary with Bonnie Erbe, N 03/03/13, 7:30am, 30 min.

Tammy Duckworth: The Illinois Democrat and Iraq War veteran shares the story of her service and her injury, in her own words. Violence Against Women: After a brutal attack against a Indian woman in New Delhi, the international women's rights community is calling for change.

Religion & Ethics Newsweekly, N 01/13/13, 7am, 30 min

Prisons for Profit - Louisiana has the highest rate of incarceration of any state in the nation with one in every 86 adults behind bars. As Lucky Severson reports, to contain the costs of imprisoning so many individuals, the state has outsourced the operating of many prisons to local sheriffs and others who are given a per diem payment for each prisoner. Critics say one effect of this is to give sheriffs an incentive to expand their prison populations and keep their costs as low as possible.

Need To Know, N 02/24/13, 9am, 30 min.

In the wake of the Newtown tragedy, NEED TO KNOW retraces an earlier shooting incident, exploring the ripple effects that continue to reverberate years later. The program takes an in-depth look at the traumatic results on the victim's family, the killer and the killer's family, others wounded that day and on the community at large.

III. Needs of Special Interest Groups

Moyers & Co., N 01/25/13, 10pm, 60 min.

This year marks the 40th anniversary of Roe v. Wade, the Supreme Court decision that overturned many federal and state restrictions on a woman's right to an abortion. But while polls show that most Americans support the decision, and that a majority -- for the first time -- believe abortion should be legal in all or most cases, anti-abortion forces show no sign of relenting.

To The Contrary with Bonnie Erbe, N 01/20/13, 7:30am, 30 min.

All Boys Club: President Obama is being criticized for leaving out women and persons of color in his first few Cabinet nominations for his second term.

Half the Sky: Turning Oppression Into Opportunity for Women Worldwide, N 02/07/13, 3am, 130 min.

Introduced by George Clooney, and traveling with intrepid reporter Nicholas Kristof and celebrity advocates (America Ferrera, Diane Lane, Eva Mendes, Meg Ryan, Gabrielle Union and Olivia Wilde), HALF THE SKY presents women and girls who are living under some of the most difficult circumstances imaginable -- and fighting bravely to change them. Their intimate, dramatic and immediate stories of struggle reflect viable and sustainable options for empowerment and offer an actionable blueprint for transformation.

V. Employment/Unemployment/Poverty

Need To Know, N 02/03/13, 9am, 30 min.

On a special "Help Wanted" edition, Need to Know updates two reports about innovative state employment programs: the first, in Oregon, to create jobs; the second, in Rhode Island, to preserve them.

Moyers & Co, N 03/22/13, 10pm, 60 min.

Richard Wolff's smart, blunt talk about the crisis of capitalism on his first Moyers & Company appearance, we asked him to return. On this week's show ( Wolff dives further into income inequality, analyzing the widening gap between a booming stock market and a population that increasingly lives in poverty. Wolff also takes questions sent in from around the world by our viewers.

Moyers & Co, N 01/11/13, 10pm, 60 min.

Our current obsession with slashing the deficit is getting in the way of real work that needs to be done to preserve both our economy and our democracy. It's all about jobs, says Paul Krugman, who joins Bill Moyers on the next Moyers & Company. The Nobel Prize-winning economist and New York Times columnist explains why our top priority should be getting America back to work - if only Congress and the President would stop throwing distractions in the way. Krugman's latest book, End This Depression Now!, is a warning of the fiscal perils ahead and a prescription to safely avoid them.

VI. Environment/Ecology

Frontline, N 03/24/13, 2am, 60 min.

FRONTLINE continues its investigation of nuclear safety with an unprecedented account of the crisis inside the Fukushima Dai-ichi nuclear complex after a devastating earthquake and tsunami struck Japan on March 11, 2011. With exclusive eyewitness testimony from key figures in the drama -- including the Japanese Prime Minister and senior executives at the power company Tepco -- FRONTLINE tells the story of the workers struggling frantically to reconnect power inside the plant's pitch-dark and highly radioactive reactor buildings; the nuclear experts and officials in the Prime Minister's office fighting to get information as the crisis spiraled out of control; and the plant manager who disobeyed his executives' orders when he thought it would save the lives of his workers. The story profiles the Japanese soldiers and firefighters drafted to cool the reactors, who were wounded when the reactor housings exploded; and the families living near the nuclear plant, who unknowingly fled in the same direction as the radioactive plume, exposing themselves to dangerously high radiation levels.

NATURE, N 02/07/13, 1:30pm, 60 min.

In "Our Fragile Planet," Sir David Attenborough reflects on the dramatic impact that human beings have had on the natural world during his lifetime. He tells surprising, entertaining and deeply personal stories of the changes he has seen, the pioneering conservationists in whose footsteps he has followed, and the revolution in attitudes towards nature that has taken place around the globe.

VII. Medical and Mental Health/Social Services

Frontline, N 01/31/13, 9pm, 60 min.

Dental care can be a matter of life and death. Yet millions of Americans can't afford a visit to the dentist. An investigation by FRONTLINE and the Center for Public Integrity reveals the shocking consequences of a broken safety net. Poor children, entitled by law to dental care, often cannot find a dentist willing to see them. Other kids receive excessive care billed to Medicaid or major surgery for preventable tooth infections. For adults with dental disease, the situation can be as dire -- and bankrupting. While millions of Americans use emergency rooms for dental care, at a cost of more than half a billion dollars, corporate dental chains are filling the gaps in care, in some cases allegedly overcharging patients or loading them with high priced credit card debt. Correspondent Miles O'Brien investigates the flaws in our dental system and nascent proposals to fix them.

VIII. Economy/Business

Frontline, N 01/24/13, 9pm, 60 min.

Are the CEOs of mega-banks too big to jail? Though fraudulent practices at banks contributed to America's financial meltdown, to date no Wall Street titan has been convicted of a crime connected to the crisis. FRONTLINE investigates why Wall Street's leaders have escaped prosecution.

Frontline, N 02/14/13, 10pm, 60 min.

This February, as the nation faces yet another round of fiscal crises, FRONTLINE investigates the inside history of how Washington has failed to solve the country's problems of debt and deficit. Drawing on interviews with key players in Congress and the White House, FRONTLINE goes behind the scenes to show how a clash of politics and personalities has taken the nation's economy to the edge of the "fiscal cliff," and now to a second round of standoffs over the debt ceiling and sequestration. The film explores the deep ideological divide inside the Republican Party and the struggle between House Majority Leader Eric Cantor and House Speaker John Boehner as they take on President Obama and the Democrats.

NEED TO KNOW, N 01/13/13, 9am, 30 min.

With the ongoing discussion in Washington about revising the federal tax code, Need to Know profiles four New Jersey residents with dramatically different incomes to demonstrate how current tax regulations disproportionately benefit some Americans more than others.

IX. Family/Morality/Religion

To The Contrary with Bonnie Erbe, N 01/06/13, 7am, 30 min.

No More Babies: Birth rates are declining for families in the Latino community. Panelists: Del. Eleanor Holmes Norton (D-DC); Hispanic Leadership Network Executive Director Jennifer Sevilla Korn; The Public Notice's Gretchen Hamel.

To The Contrary with Bonnie Erbe, N 03/24/13, 7:30am, 30 min.

Single mothers and men in decline? - Men in the workforce have seen their wages decline in recent decades and new research shows it may be linked to the rise of single parent families.

Religion & Ethics Newsweekly, N 01/27/13, 7am, 30 min.

Lillian Daniel - A popular United Church of Christ pastor says she is fed up with atheists and everyone else who criticizes the Christian church, among them the growing number who say they are "spiritual but not religious." Daniel tells Bob Abernethy what she thinks is important is a church where "we worship a God who invented us, not the other way around."
